2nd Sunday of Lent

REMINDER

Daylight savings times begins next Sunday, March 12, 2023. Please set clocks forward 1 hour Saturday, March 11th before going to bed.

On our worst days, we might say that we feel as bad as we look on our driver's license. At the other end of the spectrum, wealthy people can commission their portraits that erase blemishes and make even the plainest appear stately.

Somewhere in between lies the reality of who we are — a matter far more complex than can be captured visually or verbally. Today's Liturgy of the Word focuses on the question of how the disciples grew in knowing Jesus and how that affected them.

Rather surprisingly, the people who put together our lectionary chose Abram's relationship with God to shed light on the mystery of Jesus' transfiguration. Our selection from Genesis tells a story about changing identity. God invited Abram to leave behind everything that had defined him — his land and his kin — so that God could make something new of him.

God made five promises to Abram, each of which urged him to look beyond all he had and knew, so that he could embrace a much larger identity that would be as good for the whole world as it was for him personally.

The reading ends with the wonderful summary of a well-lived life: "Abram went as the Lord directed him."

St. Joachim Church is so blessed to have our newest members Dionicio and Dulce to donate a beautiful statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe to the church. We are all humbled by your generosity. Thank you both so much for this special gift to our Church. It is very much appreciated!

On Sunday, February 26, 2023, Fr. Frankline and the St. Joachim parishioners celebrated Tom Shelton's 92nd birthday, (which is actually on February 28, 2023) with cake and a pot luck! We hope you had a wonderful birthday Tom!
