Why go on Pilgrimage?

"Pilgrimage is a 'fundamental' part of jubilee events. Setting out on a journey is traditionally associated with our human quest for meaning in life. A pilgrimage on foot is a great aid for rediscovering the value of silence, effort and simplicity of life." -Pope Francis

The very theme of the Jubilee calls us to be pilgrims full of hope. We are called to travel on pilgrimage with hope and expectation of encountering the Lord, of seeking forgiveness, healing, increasing love of God and neighbor, and to learn by physical experience to bear our crosses well on this pilgrimage of life to our final Heavenly destination.
