The Transfiguration of the Lord
Sunday, August 6, 2023

Transfiguration of the Lord

The Transfiguration of Jesus is an event where Jesus Christ took three of his disciples, Peter, James and John, upon Mount Tabor, where Moses and Elijah appeared and Jesus was transfigured, his face and clothes becoming dazzlingly bright. The festival celebrates the revelation of the eternal glory of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity. Jesus is then called "Son" by the voice of God the Father, as in the Baptism of Jesus.

A church first raised at Mount Tabor in the fourth century was dedicated on August 6. The Feast of Transfiguration was fixed as August 6 by Pope Calixtus III in 1457 as a thank offering for the victory over the Turks at Belgrade on that day in 1456.

On Friday, July 28, 2023 St. Charles had an End of Summer, back to school Family cook-out and movie night. It was a great turn out. Fr. Frankline, and the PSR youth had a wonderful time with out door water/bubble play. Thank you to Brandi Bright, Brooke Herndon and everyone who was involved with making this a special night for everyone, including our cooks, movie operator, game coordinators and clean up crew. Special thanks to all who donated money to make this event possible.
