Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael

Saint Michael is the "Prince of the Heavenly Host," the leader of all the angels. His name is Hebrew for "Who is like God?" and was the battle cry of the good angels against Lucifer and his followers when they rebelled against God. He is mentioned four times in the Bible, in Daniel 10 and 12, in the letter of Jude, and in Revelation.

Michael, whose forces cast down Lucifer and the evil spirits into Hell, is invoked for protection against Satan and all evil. Pope Leo XIII, in 1899, having had a prophetic vision of the evil that would be inflicted upon the Church and the world in the 20th century, instituted a prayer asking for Saint Michael's protection to be said at the end of every Mass.

"I am Gabriel, who stand before God." (Luke 1, 19)

Saint Gabriel, whose name means "God's strength," is mentioned four times in the Bible. Most significant are Gabriel's two mentions in the New Testament: to announce the birth of John the Baptist to his father Zacharias, and the at Incarnation of the Word in the womb of Mary.

"I am the angel Raphael, one of the seven, who stand before the Lord" (Tob 12:15)

Saint Raphael, whose name means "God has healed" because of his healing of Tobias' blindness in the Book of Tobit. Tobit is the only book in which he is mentioned. His office is generally accepted by tradition to be that of healing and acts of mercy.

St. Matthew 20:1-16a. The call to the vineyard (to the Church), through God's gift of faith and the sacrament of baptism, is a gift for which we can never sufficiently thank God. If we remain in the vineyard and labor honestly, that is, if we cooperate with the actual graces God is continually giving us, we are assured of reaching heaven when our earthly days are ended. The work we have to do in God's vineyard is the fulfilling of the duties of our state in life. By carrying out these duties faithfully and honestly we are doing the will of God and earning heaven. The greater part of our day and indeed of our life, will be taken up with tasks of themselves worldly, but these tasks when done in the state of grace and with the intention of honoring God, have a supernatural value. For this we have to thank God for His goodness and generosity.

If you would like to come to the church for private prayer the church (St. Charles) and office will be open during the following times:

Monday-Thursday 9:30am - 1:30pm

Worldwide Marriage Encounter:

"Come Drink the Water of Renewed Love" Give your marriage the gift of attending a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend – a weekend-long retreat to focus on each other, find deeper intimacy, rekindle your romance, and revitalize your marriage – and leave with a marriage that is refreshed and full of energy!

Consider the commitment that you made to your spouse and make a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend to renew those feelings you had during your first years together.

October 20-22, 2023 – St. Bernard Abbey, Cullman, Alabama

You can get more information or register online at www.wvme.org or by calling Frank and Kathryn

Wessling at 205-530-3607.

OKTOBERFEST – Oktoberfest will be October 14th from 6pm-9pm. This is a family friendly event with lots of activities and games for children and adults, German cuisine, music, silent auction, fellowship and fun!! This year we have a new sound system and events to make the evening even better for everyone! It is also a wonderful fundraiser for our church. Tickets will be on sale after Mass at St. Charles each week and Tricia will have tickets available at St. Joachim. Adult tickets are $20, and children are $10. Children 2 and under are free. We hope to see you there!!

SILENT AUCTION ITEMS – We are still in need of items for the silent auction. If all our church families could arrange for 1-2 items, it would be an incredible auction! We are looking for gift certificates, baked goods or homemade jams that can be used to create baskets, quality handmade craft items, unique pieces, patio furniture and décor, like new collectibles, jewelry, theme baskets, sports apparel (JSU, Alabama, Auburn), tailgating items, grilling and BBQ items, etc. Items may be brought to the church office during office hours, or you may call the office to make other arrangements. We appreciate your help in getting us quality items to make this a big success for our parish.
