THANK YOU

It has been a busy week: The brush from the ditch to the hillside shrine behind Macey Hall was cleared. The trash behind the storage shed was carted to the street. The grass was cut. The floor scrubber was brought to life, 2 new batteries and a set of tires. I want to thank Ron Cypher for donating $300 towards the cost of the batteries and tires, and Ray DeCosta for all the work they've done. Macey Hall storage room was also cleaned up and organized. All my thanks and prayers for your service.

ST. CHARLES SPRING CLEAN UP

The Spring Clean-up will be Saturday, February 29th from 10am - 2pm. All parishioners are encouraged to attend and this is a PSR service-project. There are plenty of jobs inside all the buildings and outside on the grounds. We have all the cleaning supplies needed, but if you want to work outside you may want to bring gloves and your preferred gardening tools. Lets have a big turn-out so we can have the entire Church, church buildings and grounds freshly cleaned in time for spring flowers and our Easter Celebration!

PSR ART SHOW FUNDRAISER AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Following Mass on Saturday, February 29th and Sunday, March 1st, the students from PSR will be putting on an Art Show and Ice Cream Social for the parish. Students will have their special creative talents on display for everyone to see what wonderful things our parish students can do. During this time we will be serving ice cream with your choice of many toppings to enjoy as you browse the artwork, and mingle with fellow parishioners. It will be a nice event for families and guests as well.
