February 2—Feast*

God goes to Church

Lord Jesus, as an infant You were brought to the temple by Your parents out of religious duty. Help all parents to take their duties to God seriously, to inculcate their faith in the next generation by their words and by their actions, so that the faith will be handed on where the faith is first learned—in the family and in the home.

This is a Sacred Space

You come in from outside and enter through the double doors. Your senses tell you that something is different. You have entered a space that has a special kind of beauty. Vaulted ceiling, beautiful tall stained glass windows with the sunlight flowing through them giving this space a soft glow. Perhaps there is the lingering odor of incense in the air.

Before you is the Holy water font, you dip your fingers in and make the sign of the cross. You go down the center aisle and find a seat, genuflecting before sliding in. You kneel down and look up. There before you is the Alter clothed in the color of the liturgical season. Beyond the Alter you see it. The ornate golden Tabernacle with the single red candle beside it reminding you that in that Tabernacle resides the true presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Crucifix above reminding us of all that Jesus did for our salvation.

You are in a sacred space, a place of prayer. Voices here are kept in hush whispers. There are people here that are praying. The only raised voices we here are those of the people praying the Blessed Rosary.

This is not the place for idle chit chat. That place is outside. This is a sacred place, a place of prayer.

Jesus said "My house shall be a house of prayer." (LK 19:46)

Let us be ever mindful of those words whenever we enter that sacred space and the presence of our Lord.

From a Heart of Love and Devotion.

Please pray for...

Please continue to pray for the unborn.
