The Arc awards Council 13513 efforts on behalf of children, adults

Knights of Columbus Council 13513 was recognized last month by The Arc of Calhoun & Cleburne Counties during the agency’s Annual Meeting, Awards Banquet, and Fashion Show at the Oxford Civic Center.

KofC Council 13513 Grand Knight Bruce W. Large received The Arc’s Appreciation Award from Executive Director Pati Tiller. The award was for the Council’s many years of support of The Arc’s clients and many programs.

The Arc is a 501c3 non-profit, United Way Agency which serves children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Calhoun and Cleburne Counties. Large earlier had presented a Council 13513 check to Tiller based on funds raised during the annual October roadblock in Jacksonville.

After receiving the award, Large said, “It’s a great opportunity that the Knights participate in every year. To see and engage with the challenged folks that The Arc supports, is very rewarding, and every Knight that participates in this fund raiser, should be very proud.”
