Knights of Columbus Council 13513 continues to serve the Church

Council donates car seats to HOPE

← Knights of Columbus Council 13513 Grand Knight Bruce W. Large recently donated eight infant car seats to HOPE Family Services. With offices in Anniston and Jacksonville, HOPE offers no cost and confidential pregnancy services, options, education, and more to women and couples in their journey to parenthood. Large presented the car seats to (l-r) HOPE Outreach Director LeAnne Jenkins, Baby Basics Coordinator Hannah Tindall, and HOPE Family Services Executive Director Amy McDonald. As an organization affiliated with the Catholic Church, the KofC actively supports agencies like HOPE that assist pregnant women who want to carry the child in their womb to term. For more information about HOPE Family Services, please call 256-237-9999.

Council sponsors prayer breakfast for local Catholic radio network station →

Marty Matulia (l), the General Manager of the Guadalupe Radio Network (GRN) in Alabama, hosted a prayer breakfast in Macey Hall last month that was sponsored by the local KofC Council. The event gave Matulia the opportunity to introduce Fr. Frankline Fomukong (c), the pastor of St. Charles Borromeo and St. Joachim parishes, as the radio network's 2025 "Fishers of Men" award recipient. The award is scheduled to be presented at The Harbert Center August 21, 2025, in Birmingham, Ala.

Matulia also introduced Randall E. Bright (r), a member of Council 13513, who spoke about his experiences growing up in Piedmont, Ala., as a protestant and then his discernment and conversion as an adult to the Catholic faith.

The breakfast attracted more than 50 parishioners and guests. The money raised was donated to the radio network, a listener supported outlet for Catholic evangelization.
