22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Catholic Church celebrates today the birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary on its traditional fixed date of September 8, nine months after the December 8 celebration of her Immaculate Conception as the child of Saints Joachim and Anne.

The circumstances of the Virgin Mary's infancy and early life are not directly recorded in the Bible, but other documents and traditions describing the circumstances of her birth are cited by some of the earliest Christian writers from the first centuries of the Church.

These accounts, although not considered authoritative in the same manner as the Bible, outline some of the Church's traditional beliefs about the birth of Mary.

The "Protoevangelium of James," which was probably put into its final written form in the early second century, describes Mary's father Joachim as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. Joachim was deeply grieved, along with his wife Anne, by their childlessness. "He called to mind Abraham," the early Christian writing says, "that in the last day God gave him a son Isaac."

Joachim and Anne began to devote themselves extensively and rigorously to prayer and fasting, initially wondering whether their inability to conceive a child might signify God's displeasure with them.

As it turned out, however, the couple were to be blessed even more abundantly than Abraham and Sarah, as an angel revealed to Anne when he appeared to her and prophesied that all generations would honor their future child: "The Lord has heard your prayer, and you shall conceive, and shall bring forth, and your seed shall be spoken of in all the world."

On Friday, August 18, 2023 Fr. Frankline, Deacon A.B. King and parishioners from both St. Charles and St. Joachim came together at Baja Grille for a farewell get together dinner for Ron and Dot Cypher. Ron and Dot have sold their home here in Jacksonville and moved closer to family in Huntsville. We will sure miss their presence here, along with and all they have done for St. Charles over the past 34 years!! Thank you to all who came out to greet them.

If you would like to come to the church for private prayer the church (St. Charles) and office will be open during the following times:

Tuesday-Thursday 9:30am - 1:30pm
